I think you fake it - eu acho que você está fingindo isso

You've been telling me dreams living illusions

Don't you ever want to be real

Everyday you won your competitions thinking that's Sex appeal

Didn't you notice we're living confusions

Different realities to feel

The panther was Ding words didn't reach you

And yeah alright you were on honeymoon

Up and down life goes colourful but in the end it shows

I wanna tell you something I think you fake it

Let me loose control

Be hot be cool be in superficiality just burns the skin

I've got a message I think you fake it

Just let me lose

REPEAT ALL

I think you fake it

So I let you win win

But I'll be miles away from you
